

Telemarketers are a nuisance and we need protection. With consumer fraud and ID theft on the rise, it is a waste of time to answer these calls. The loss of telemarketing jobs should not be the deciding factor. Caller ID's should clearly state who is calling and not just 'Out of Area'. Put these guys out of business or I will call for a national boycott.